4. Family Literacy Events and Activities

Report the unduplicated number of family literacy events and activities your member(s) were involved with this academic year and the number of attendees/participants of those events and activities. If inapplicable, please enter zero.

Children and family members who participate in multiple family literacy events (ie. reading nights) and activities (ie. take-home family literacy activities) may be counted as participants multiple times; once for each event or activity that they participate in. If you supervise multiple WRC sites, provide the cumulative number among all sites.

Skip if there were no family events or activities since submission of previous report.

5. Report the unduplicated number of volunteers recruited and/or managed by your member(s) from September to present, and the number of hours contributed by those volunteers. Only volunteers recruited and/or managed by your member(s) who support improved literacy and reading in children and students should be reported. If inapplicable, please enter zero.

Individual volunteers may only be counted once and reported in one category. If you are unsure whether a community volunteer is ongoing or episodic, use the "episodic" category

Ongoing community volunteer: a volunteer recruited and/or managed by your member(s) who has made an ongoing commitment/contribution supporting improved literacy and reading in children and students

Episodic community volunteer: a volunteer recruited and/or managed by your member(s) who participated in a one-time service project supporting improved literacy and reading in children and students

Peer or cross-age volunteer: a high achieving student paired with a lower achieving student; the student tutor may be the same age or older than the tutee

Skip if no new volunteers were supported since submission of previous report.
